

VII INTERNATIONAL HISTORY COLLOQUIUM
THE STRENGTH OF HISTORY AT THE DOORS OF THE NEW MILLENNIUM
History and the other Social and Human Sciences along XXth Century (1899-2002)

Table of contents

Acknowledgements	1
Preface Ignacio Olábarri and Francisco J. Caspistegui	5
The Legacy of Nineteenth-Century Hermeneutic Historicism, Scientific Positivism, and Marxism in the Twentieth Century Georg G. Iggers	23
History and the Social Sciences: Readings of a French Debate around 1900 Jacques Revel	43
Clio and Her Colleagues in the United States During the Twentieth Century. A Story of Serial Marriages, Divorces, and Dalliances among the Disciplines Michael Kammen	75
Alien Allies. The Relations between History, Sociology, and Economics in Germany, 19th – 20th Centuries Thomas Welskopp	103
The search for historical experience in Annales tradition Massimo Mastrogregori	129
History and Economic Theory Miguel A. Martínez-Echevarría	155
Geographers, Annaliste Historians and the roots and divergent pathways of English and French Historical Demography Richard Smith	167
Marxism: Between Science and Prophecy Antonio Morales Moya	187
Too "Turns": Social History, Yesterday and Today José Andrés-Gallego and Ignacio Olábarri	231
"The 'Linguistic Turn' and History" Gabrielle Spiegel	255
Three Graces Lewis Pyenson	261
The Spanish "Quota" in the History of Architecture. A Footnote to Gombrich's "Art History and the Social Sciences" Joaquín Lorda & Javier Martínez-González	337
Political History in the 20th Century: from ostracism to cultural turn Francisco J. Caspistegui	413
History and Jesus of Nazareth Juan Chapa	453
Postface Jaume Aurell	507
Bibliography	531
Contributors	623