

García, A. N. - Silar, M. - Torralba, J. M. (eds.), Natural Law: Historical, Systematic and Juridical Approaches, Cambridge Scholars Publishing, Newcastle (forthcoming)

Table of Contents

Introduction

Part I: Historical Approaches

Chapter One (Laura E. Corso de Estrada)
Marcus Tullius Cicero and the Role of Nature in the Knowledge of Moral Good

Chapter Two (Juan-Luis Caballero)
Rom 1:18–2:16 and Natural Law. A Rhetorical Approach

Chapter Three (Joaquín García-Huidobro)
Practical Truth and Practical Falsehood in Thomas Aquinas

Chapter Four (María Elton)
The Darkening of Natural Reason and the Force of Law and Custom

Chapter Five (María Idoya Zorroza)
Some Reflections on Ethical Rationality in the Economic Theory of the School of Salamanca

Chapter Six (Manfred Svensson)
Phillip Melancthon and the Reception of Aristotelian Natural Law Theory in the European Reformation

Chapter Seven (Raquel Lázaro)
Montaigne and Descartes: a Dialogue on Morals

Chapter Eight (Ángel Beleña López)
Natural law in Hume: an Imitation of Divine Voluntarism?

Chapter Nine (Agustín Echavarría)
The Metaphysical Foundations of Natural Law in the Early Writings of Leibniz

Chapter Ten (Ivone Moreira)
Edmund Burke and the Natural Law

Chapter Eleven (José M. Torralba)
Kant on the Law of Nature as the Type of Moral Law. On “The Typic of the Faculty of Pure Practical Judgment” and the Good as the Object of Practical Reason

Part II
Contemporary Reception of Natural Law

Chapter Twelve (Encarna Llamas)
Phenomenological Perspectives on Natural Law

Chapter Thirteen (Julia Urabayen)
Guaranteeing the Right to Have Rights: Hannah Arendt’s Theory of Politics

Chapter Fourteen (Margarita Mauri)
Alasdair MacIntyre: On Natural Law

Chapter Fifteen (Tomás Trigo)
The Relation between Natural Law and the Law of Christ in the Context of the Current Debate on the Specificity of Christian Morality

Part III:
Systematic Approaches

Chapter Sixteen (Héctor Zagal)

Naturalist Fallacy and Ethics: Problems of the Normativity of Nature in Aristotelian-Thomistic Philosophy

Chapter Seventeen (Mario Šilar)

The Practical Value of Natural Law Theory in the Work of St Thomas Aquinas

Chapter Eighteen (Teresa Enríquez)

Imperium, Instinct and Natural Law

Chapter Nineteen (Juan Fernando Sellés)

Natural Law, Essential Law and Personal Law. A study on the nature, hierarchy and aim of these human “laws”

Chapter Twenty (José Ignacio Murillo)

Health as a Norm and Principle of Intelligibility

Part IV:
Juridical Approaches

Chapter Twenty One (Ángela Aparisi Miralles)

Practical Reason, Morality and Law

Chapter Twenty Two (Carlos I. Massini-Correas)

Philosophical Hermeneutics and Natural Law: Some Critical and Evaluative Considerations

Chapter Twenty Three (Pablo Sánchez-Ostiz)

Rules of Imputation and Human Rationality

Chapter Twenty Four (Diego Poole)

Practical Reason, Justice and Law (the Present Relevance of the Aristotelean-Thomistic Perspective)

Chapter Twenty Five (Caridad Velarde)

Exigibility in Legal Obligations

Bibliography

List of Contributors