

NEW-YORK.

The first of a series of women's free Centennial meetings will be held at Chickering Hall tomorrow afternoon. Mrs. Zina Fay Pierce will preside. The object of the meetings, as stated in a prospectus, is to hold mutual consultations for the purpose of placing "home and society upon a better economical and moral basis."

The New York Times

Published: January 30, 1876

Copyright © The New York Times