9th August 1870

My dear Clifford, Welcome back to England! This is written from Paris which I leave on Sunday night next for London whence on Tuesday evening I purpose to proceed to the B. A. at Dublin where I give to infer from your letter you do not intend to be present. Pierce (C. S. I suppose ~~you mean~~ you mean) I am informed will also attend the Meeting of the British Association -

Many thanks for the precious MS which I presume you intend for the American Journal -
