Dearest Charlie, I cannot think you have received the letter I wrote you on the receipt of your telegram. I directed the letter to Baltimore thinking that the surest way of its reaching you but could say simply "John's Hopkins University" not knowing your address there. I am distressed at getting no letter- Did you get one from me directed to your banker in Paris & written I think about the 28th of August? Since that time I have been most of the time at the Mts with Jen--but have been also for a few days at Northboro to see my new granddaughter born there three weeks ago. I returned from there yesterday & am now here alone with your Aunt & feeling very forlorn. Jen I suppose will be home--if home it can be called on Saturday.
I can call no place home whose doors are closed to my children- & Helen would not think of coming here to remain two days even to arrange for their immediate removal to New York so that she must leave things here to take care of themselves while she takes her children & what belongings she has with her immediately from "Northboro". Do write me a line at least dear Charlie assuring me of your continued affection which is one of my dear comforts & supports.
Give my love to Juliette-- we must before very long arrange some plan by which we can meet. I long to see you both- Do your duties commence immediately at Johns Hopkins & what are your prospects there & your duties at the Coast Survey? & do you mean to live at Washington. I am feeling tired & poorly to-day & will write no more at this time.

Hoping to hear from you very soon I am Dear & ever

Dearest Charlie,

I cannot think you have received the letter I wrote you on the receipt of your telegram. I directed the letter to Baltimore as the surest way of its reaching you but could say nothing of Johns Hopkins University not knowing the address. I am distressed at getting no letter. Did you not once show me a direction to your banker in New York? Was that not the 28th of August? Since that time I have been about—at the time at the Mts with you—but have since spent a few days at Northboro to see my new granddaughter born three weeks ago. I returned here on Friday. I am now here alone with your Aunt & feeling very forlorn. I suppose will be home at the end of the week, but I can call no place home whose doors are closed to my children. Helen would not think of returning there. Two days even to arrange for it. I think she leaves tomorrow—New York so that is she must leave it in the house remains—it seems to me she takes her own household case of a line at least dear Charlie—

Give my love to Juliette—

We must believe very truly

Arrange some plan by which we can meet. I want to see you both. Do your duties commence immediately at John Hopkins & what are your prospects there & your status at the Coast Survey? & do you mean to live at Washington? I am feeling tired & poorly today & will write no more at this time.

Hoping to hear from you very soon & am as ever

Your loving & devoted Mother
