TELEGRAMMA

The Government does not assume any responsibility in consequence of the telegraph service.

Taxes collected in advance for error or in consequence of refusal or irreparability of the addressee must be completed by the sender.

Hours are counted from the meridian of Rome and for internal telegrams, from midnight.

In telegrams written in Roman characters the first number after the name of the place of origin represents that of the telegram, the second that of the words, the others the date, hour and minutes of presentation.
